LOCAL NEWS.

John M. Rose and wife, of Stillwater, spent Sunday with relatives at this place.

Several of the young people of this place attended the picnic near Ezel last Saturday.

We came very near missing an issue about two weeks since on account of one William Gost.

J. T. Caskey, of Grassy, passed through here Monday, en route to Irvine to be examined for a pension.

Dr. Waller Tipton requests us to ask his friends to address him at Hazel Green instead of Jackson.

The Wolfe County Institute will be held at Campton, commencing July 19th, and continue five days.

Quinn is quoted in the Louisville market at $1.60 to $1.65 for new and $1.75 for dry and well cured.

Am. Pieratt, of Ezel, visited Campton, Monday last, on business. Several of our citizens also attended County Court there.

Mrs. Emma Evans, of this place, has our thanks for a bowl of delicious chowchow, a relish that the gods would fain possess.

Mrs. Mary Greenwade and family left Thursday morning last for a visit to her father, J. G. Trimble and family, at Mt. Sterling.

If you want a first-class sewing machine call at this office. In the meantime do not fail to read the Jenny June advertisement in this issue.

Jonathan Childers will commence his school at the mouth of Holly, the district recently subtracted from Breathitt county, on Monday, July 12th.

Aunt Louisa Cox, who is 82 years old, has just returned from a visit to her granddaughter, Mrs. Mattie Perkins, where she spent a week very pleasantly.

Bro. Kendall, the pastor, filled the pulpit at the Methodist Church here last Sunday, preaching good sermons morning and evening. The congregations were very good.

John Patrick, of Jackson, was a guest of the Pieratt House last Wednesday night, en route home from Frankfort, where he had been for the past two months selling timber.

Persons desiring to teach school in Wolfe county, will attend at Campton, Saturday July 10th, where the examining board will meet for the purpose of examining applicants.

A. T. Kaltenbrun, who has been clerking for Charles Little at Jackson, was a guest of the Day House Sunday. He was en route for Frankfort and left on the stage Monday morning.

Two little girls of this place were quarrelling, when one said to the other, "You think you're somebody because you're going to Mt. Sterling, don't you? Guess I can go to Campton, too."

Mrs. Dr. Taulbee, of this place, will please accept our thanks for a mess of fine fresh cucumbers. Mrs. T. certainly knows how to gladden the editorial heart, and we would there were more like her.

What has become of the telephone line from Jackson to Mt. Sterling? We had hoped to connect with it at Campton, and think the people would subscribe a reasonable sum for that purpose.

Charley Swango last week killed a bird which very much resembles the notornis. Whatever its species it, it was a very rare specimen. Indeed where we cut off its leg, for a trophy, it was "blood-rare."

Rev. Dr. Williamson preached at the Bethesda Church last Sunday, and the meeting at that place will be continued through the week. He will preach here next Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.

Lutie and Lillie, accompanied by their father, J. T. Day, left Wednesday last for a visit to Miss Clara and father, N. B. Day, at the mouth of Frozen Creek, in Breathitt, and will be absent a week or ten days.

Mrs. Carr, consort of Jeff. Carr who was killed several years ago, died at her residence near Ezel on the 1st inst. She was a consistent christian lady, and beloved by all who knew her. She leaves ten children to mourn her loss.

The attention of our readers is invited to the advertisement "For One Month." Mr. Gevedon has some fine jewelry, and is selling very low. Those buying $10 worth of goods from him will receive THE HERALD free for one year.

Mrs. Mary Coulter, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Caskey, of this place, for several months, and who endeared herself to many of the ladies of this place while here, left for her home at Crestline, Cherokee county, Kansas, on June 20th.

Rev. H. L. Nave, of Mt. Sterling will arrive here on Monday night next, on Tuesday visit the Sunday-school workers of Hazel Green, and on Wednesday visit Campton in the interest of Sunday-school. On Thursday, 15th inst., there will be a Sunday-school Convention held in Hazel Green, and it is earnestly desired that every minister and all Sunday-school superintendents be present. The object of the convention is to create a greater interest in Sunday-school work, and to appoint delegates to the State Sunday-school Union, which will be held at Louisville, August 17th, 18th and 19th. This is a noble work, the results of which cannot but be for the promotion of religion, morals and society. All parents, therefore, who are interested in the welfare of their children, present and future, should attend this convention.

Rev. D. H. Fallon, of the Christian Church of this place, received a pious letter last Saturday which he will remember as long as he lives, but he deserved all he got. The way of it was about this: Several of the ladies of his congregation concluded to surprise him with a donation of usual and ornamental household articles. So, on Saturday last, two wagons loaded with members of his congregation, and each passenger carrying some token of their appreciation, went to his home. Coffee, sugar, bacon and many other articles in this way reached him, and every one who contributed is the happier therefor, while the recipient will thus be encouraged to greater exertions in their behalf.

The Celestina which was given as a present to some one of our subscribers, fell to Green B. Back, of Quicksand Mills, and here is his receipt for it. "Received of Spencer Cooper, the Celestina given away by THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD. GREEN B. BACK."

These beautiful and exquisitely toned instruments are sold by Mrs. Emily Tripp, 519 Fourth Avenue, Louisville, and if any of our readers wish to purchase one they can order through this office or send direct to her, where they may obtain any music or musical instrument.

The trustees of this school district have secured Sam. J. Salter, of West Liberty, to teach the public school at this place. In their selection of Mr. Salter, the trustees have shown themselves eminently fitted for their duties, and that they have selected a teacher in every way suitable is patent to all concerned. "The right man in the right place," goes without denial in this case, and we predict that the school will be an immense success, while "well done, thou faithful servant," will be the greeting Sam will receive from each patron at the close of the session.

The number of the Southern Bivouac for July is unusually full of good things. Morton Cassady has an interesting article on the Tappan Monastery in this State; Major J. M. Wright goes about Old Army Service; the editor's table has a sensible disquisition on newspaper inventions of great men, and Opie Reed and others furnish good poems. Major De Fountain's article on the attack of Sumter, Dr. Oswald's account of Southern efforts, Mr. Cunningham's story and other good things go with the rest to make the Bivouac delightful reading.

There will be a grand annual picnic held at Zachariah, in Lee county, July 23d and 24th. Dancing Friday, Friday night, Saturday and Saturday night, at ten cents a set. Music by a first-class band. There will be a grand march at 1 o'clock from the grounds to Rev. Ira Wells' store. Dinner will be served at 12 o'clock at 25 cents, and there will also be all kinds of refreshments on the grounds. No whisky allowed. Strictly good order will be enforced by a full force of marshals. Admission free.

The attention of School Commission is directed to the advertisement "Prepared to Teach Institutes," and if they have not secured a teacher for their Institutes, they should write to Prof. Sanders and secure his services at once. He is the best teacher in Eastern Kentucky. Elder Sweeney, of Paris, says of him: "I have known Prof. A. Sanders for thirty years; he is a gentleman, scholar and a christian. Besides he is a teacher of long experience and eminent qualifications." Get him to teach your Institute.

Col. H. C. Lilly, of Estill county, whose announcement for Circuit Judge of this district appears in THE HERALD today, is a lawyer of some thirty years' experience, and is well known throughout district, and considered one of the best lawyers in Eastern Kentucky. He is a sober, moral, industrious gentleman, and if elected would compare favorably with any Judge in the State. He was Colonel of the 14th Kentucky Federal Cavalry during the late war.

Bro. Kendall, of the Methodist Church with his family is now occupying the parsonage at this place recently erected through his efforts. The good people of the community should each contribute something towards making life in a parsonage pleasant, and that all may have a chance, a pound party seems appropriate. Take something, a pound of coffee, sugar, soap, starch, a sack of flour, according to your means, and you will feel better for having done so.

Ayer's Ague Cure is a powerful tonic bitter, composed wholly of vegetable substances. Its action is peculiar, prompt and powerful, breaking up the chill, curing the fever, and expelling the poison from the system, yet leaving no harmful or unpleasant effect upon the patient. Sufferers from chills and fever who have used quinine as a remedy will appreciate this.

A singing school was organized at this place last Sunday, by Dr. J. B. Taulbee as musical director. The object is to select a choir, but there was enough material for a team. Doc wanted us to sing alto, but it was alto-gether too much to undertake. However, when it came to the refrain, we took a leading part.

Don't forget to be on hand next Wednesday with your stock. It is the regular stock sale day at this place. Reports from Louisville quote good heavy cattle at $4.75 to $4.90, but what bearing this will have on the Mt. Sterling market we do not pretend to know.

Everybody was delighted with the Ezel picnic, and the general verdict was that all were on their best behavior.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

JACKSON, July 2.—At the convention held here last Thursday, July 1st, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney for this (19th) Judicial District, Hon. J. B. Day, of White, of Estill, was nominated for Judge, and James Marra, Esq., of Letcher, for Attorney. Mr. White is a very nice gentleman, and will no doubt look well to the interests of the district by enforcing the laws and dealing out justice to all, if his election is procured. Mr. Marra I do not know, but from all accounts he will perhaps make a good prosecutor. Never did a convention go off with so much satisfaction on all sides as did this one. The only thing that marred the peace and harmony of the convention was that Mr. S. H. Patrick's claims for the nomination for Attorney were not pressed or considered by the convention as should have been. He claims a seat now in the rear of the Democratic party. Democrats, look well to your footsteps. When it comes to having our best men take a seat in the rear of the party to satisfy a few who wish to corrupt the ballot, we will begin to feel. The principles that were put forth by Gen. Jackson, which were pure and uncorrupted during his infancy, will be blotted, and the blood-stained banner of Democracy will no more triumph.

Mr. S. H. Patrick's two daughters, Misses Lizzie and Dulcinea, and two or three other young ladies were in town yesterday, being examined for certificates to teach school. The young ladies are all well educated, and are very nice and sociable. They have attended Prof. Dickey's school at this place three or four terms, and being instructed by such an able man ought to be fully capable of teaching. Our country is wide awake on matters of education, and has been opening her eyes for the last four years. The time is not far distant when we will have the best of our good scholars as any county in Eastern Kentucky. We have an able set of examiners, Mr. A. C. Baker and W. E. Bryant. Both are well versed in the common school branches and in several of the higher branches.

Col. Bennett H. Young of Louisville, was in at our Sunday-school last Sunday, and was very much pleased to meet such in the Sunday-school. He gave a lecture to the children on the good and bad here with others showing some gentlemen from Scotland the country through which the K. O. railroad is to run.

The funeral of Mr. Cal Wyatt will be held on Wednesday, July 14th. The cause of his death was overwork.

ROUSEAU, June 25.—At and John Collins, the noted for hunters, caught a red fox on Wednesday last. The boys are almost professional in that line, and we hope they will continue the good work.

Prof. J. Wise Hagins, David P. Hagins, Lee Hagins and Miss Elizabeth Hagins returned home from Cumberland College, Rose Hill, last week.

George Patrick, of Jackson, was with us Thursday. He is now on a canvass for County Court Clerk, has a pleasant smile, and will probably succeed.

Joseph G. Arnett, of Whitesville, passed through here on Sunday, the 28th inst., en route home from Rose Hill College, Va. Bamford White, of Irvine, is now on a canvass of this county for the nomination of Commonwealth's Attorney.

Thomas Williams, of Oakley, Magoffin county, is visiting his brother-in-law, C. W. Minix.

Elliott Howard, of Daisy Dell, has gone on a business trip to Mt. Sterling.

C. B. McQuinn bought of Sam Patton one yoke of oxen at $70.

QUICKSAND MILLS, June 29.—H. W. Houshelt, while on an electioneering canvass, fell from his horse, throwing his ankle out of socket. The doctors, J. B. Roark and Minerva Houshelt, replaced it, and have will soon be on their feet.

Miss Mattie Combs will begin teaching school at this place in a short time. We wish her much success, and hope there will be great good accomplished.

Mattie Wilson, daughter of Jackey Wilson, fell from a swing over a cliff, a distance of eight feet. Besides many bruises, she had both arms broken.

Mrs. Samantha Back is lying at the point of death with consumption.

Another tide in Quicksand, and still raining. E. J. R. N.

MORGAN COUNTY.

GRASSY CREEK, July 2.—Rev. Leander Lacy will conduct a series of Sunday services before the fourth Sunday in July at the Grassy Creek Church, near James R. Rose's, and will continue the services for several days.

The rain has ceased and the wheat harvest is over. Farmers are very busy clearing weeds out of their corn, and owing to the continued wet weather they are "as numerous as the sands of the sea shore."

R. M. Oldfield and J. C. Bryant, of Blackwater, passed through this week, on their way to Dick's Glory, with a wagon load of wool to have converted into rolls.

Rev. H. H. Little preached at the Toms Branch Church last Saturday evening and Sunday morning, and at Shelton McKinney's on Sunday evening.

Wm. M. Henry's wife has been confined to her bed for six weeks, and when last heard from was no better.

Your correspondent will attend the picnic on Blackwater tomorrow, and will lead THE HERALD's cause.

Old Aunt Zarlida Nickell, of Ezel, is very sick at Wm. Yocum's, on Blackwater.

Mrs. Alice, wife of James A. Lacy, is very low, and is gradually growing weaker. ON THE WING.

MAYTOWN, July 2.—R. A. Childers has just had some of the best two-horse wagons put up that can be found in Eastern Kentucky, which he will sell cheap for cash or young stock. He will pay any one wishing a wagon to call and see him before purchasing elsewhere.

Jordan Wills brought a grand curiosity to this office in the shape of a mayapple. On one stem were six well developed apples. Jord says he has lots of them of this kind, and that it is caused by the ground being so rich.

David Cottle, of West Liberty, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. H. McGuire, at this place. Uncle David is 77 years old, and one of the best preserved men at that age we ever saw.

E. B. May has just returned from Bath county, where he has been to see his wife. He says she is thought to be a little better, but is still quite ill.

Millard Rule, traveling salesman for a clothing house in Cincinnati, was in town yesterday, and sold R. A. Childers a nice bill of clothing. LUCK SKILLER.

MENIFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG, July 2.—Our new jail has been completed, and the magistrates were convened and received it last Saturday. They were more than satisfied with the work, and we think we have the best jail in the State. It was built by the Pauley Jail Building Co., of St. Louis, Mo., and of our neighboring counties have to build new jails, we think they can do no better than to contract with that company and secure the services of John A. Scott to superintend it. David Miles is the only occupant of the new structure at present.

Samuel Fret, who shot himself sometime since, while dodging U. S. Marshals, has been recovered and was last Saturday taken before Commissioner Wood at Mt. Sterling, and held to answer a charge of selling liquor. Failing to give bond, he is now in jail at that place.

The next "biggest" job in our town to building the jail, was that of Uncle Harry Cassidy hiring out Jim Williams' garden. After several days' hard work he succeeded in completing it yesterday evening.

Higgins, of Breathitt, at the Greenwade House Tuesday evening in a fit of rage fell against a stone, causing a severe contusion on his forehead.

Dr. Williamson has been with us the past week. He held services at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, and at night during the week.

Thos. P. Collinsworth has been making two trips each day on this end of the hack line this week, with full loads each trip.

WOLFE COUNTY.

SPRADING, June 25.—W. T. Day passed through here on Saturday last, en route to visit J. H. Brown, charged with moonshining, which he confessed before going. I think it is time for the moonshiners to take the hint, for it has to be stopped, and the sooner the better. We say, Day, take them all.

J. T. Conna passed through this place Friday last, en route to Hot Springs, Ark., where he has been for his health. He is now apparently well.

Miss Addie Hanks, of Campton, passed through this place Sunday last, en route to Frenchburg to visit friends and relatives.

Married.—On the 20th, Billie Shomaker to Miss Sarah Robinson; Rev. J. W. Kendrick officiating.

If rumor be correct, I think I will soon have an opportunity of helping to eat another cake. PHOEBE JANE.

FROM THE SAME.

SPRADING, July 2.—The Sabbath-school which was organized at this place a short time since is quite a success, it being well attended by the people generally, all of whom manifest great interest.

There was a family row between one of our neighbors and women last Tuesday night, in which knives and forks were freely used, and the victors were also victors.

John M. Fulks dropped his pocket-book, containing a small sum of money, into Stillwater last Monday, and now looks like he had "let a bird go."

Wash Kelly, of Knott county, passed through here Sunday, and left his subscription for THE HERALD.

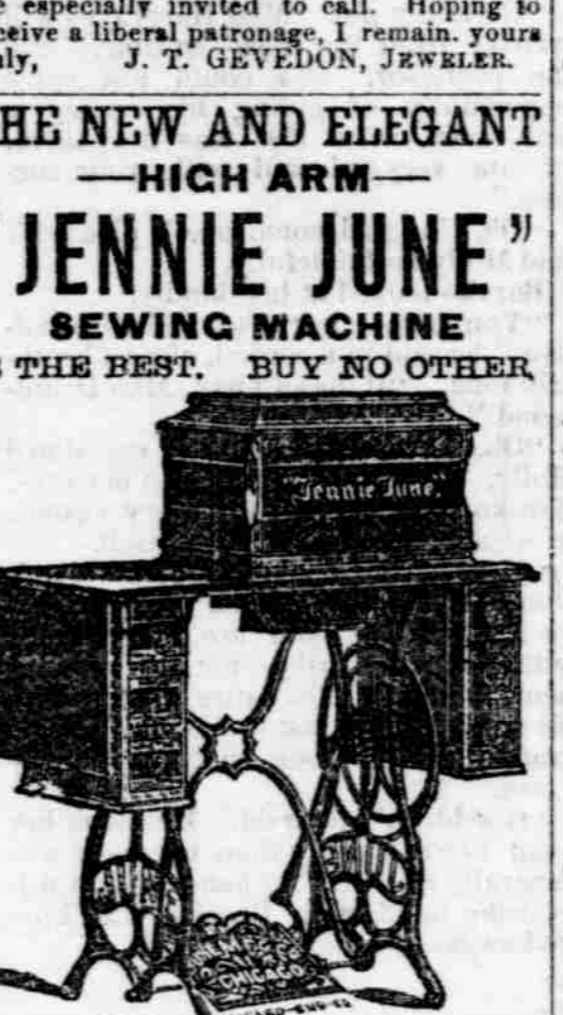

Dr. J. H. Stamper passed through here last week, en route to Hot Springs, Ark. The farmers are now about ready to lay by their corn. PHOEBE JANE.

RED RIVER, June 30.—James Cecil and Willie Henry, of Morgan county, who have been hauling logs for the Messrs. Pitts, have returned home. They sold their wagons and teams, consisting of six yoke of oxen, to the Messrs. Pitts for $675.

Wheat in this neighborhood has about all been cut, and the yield is good.

James B. Brown, who has been hauling logs, has returned home, and is now a supply of WATCHES and JEWELRY, such as Bracelets, Necklaces, Lace Pins, Solid Gold Rings. I can furnish anything in the line of SILVERPLATED WARE and save you money. I will take in exchange for anything in my line OLD SILVER and GOLD. ALL WATCHES, JEWELRY, &c., repaired by me will be sold for charges, if not called for in thirty days, unless other agreements are made. I also have a lot of beautiful Souvenir Photograph Albums. The ladies are especially invited to call. Hoping to receive a liberal patronage, I remain, yours truly, J. T. GEVEDON, JEWELER.

USE
Sicilian
HALL'S HAIR RENEWER.

It is a medicinal preparation, and, at the same time, an elegant and cleanly toilet article. Its action upon the scalp is healthful. It nourishes the glands which support the hair, and causes thin, dry hair to become thick, soft, and vigorous. It restores the color of youth to locks which have become faded with age or disease; and relieves and cures itching, caused by humors of the scalp. Dr. George Gray, Nashua, N. H., writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the wonderful effects produced by Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, as observed by me in very many cases. IT WILL CERTAINLY RESTORE THE HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR. It cleanses the head of dandruff, and leaves the hair soft, glossy, and beautiful." F. T. Sandelin, 1009 Spruce St., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "After unavailingly trying a number of preparations to prevent my hair from falling out, and, realizing that I was fast becoming bald, I tried, as a last resort, Hall's Hair Renewer. I have used only four bottles of the Renewer, and am perfectly satisfied that it is the best preparation in the market for checking the falling out of hair, invigorating the hair roots, and promoting a new growth."
